Common Capital is an approved SBA Microloan and Community Advantage Lender, a member of Opportunity Finance Network, and is certified by the U.S. Treasury as a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI). We are a subsidiary of Way Finders and we receive generous funding from the Mass. Growth Capital Corp. (MGCC).

Common Capital is a nonprofit community development financial institution (CDFI) working to strengthen communities by creating economic opportunities for low- and moderate-income people, women, people of color, and immigrants in western and central Massachusetts. We responsibly lend money to small businesses that are unable to access all the capital they need from conventional sources, such as banks. Every dollar that Common Capital deploys is an investment in opportunity for low-income people, including support for job creation, essential community services, and neighborhood rejuvenation. Common Capital augments the money it lends with free business assistance that supports our borrowers' growth and success. Common Capital is an equal opportunity lender, employer, and provider.
